

Christmas Crafting in the Kilwinning Community Shed

Ladies in the Kilwinning Community Shed learned some new skills in card making. Some of us had never used the tools or made cards before, but the enthusiasm was infectious and the output impressive!

We also tried our hand at crochet - from the simple crochet paper chains to the elaborate Christmas baubles and tree bunting! Regardless of your skill level, we try and have fun in the process!

