The Organisation has been formed to benefit the community of fishers and anglers living in Kilwinning and generally North Ayrshire (the "Community"), with the following purposes (the "Purposes"):

- 4.1 The advancement of the participation in the sport of fishing and angling in the Community
- 4.2 The advancement of environmental protection
- 4.3 To provide recreational facilities for those wishing to partake in fishing and angling
- 4.4 The advancement of animal welfare

What are the activities or projects the organisation intends to run?

The Organisation has been formed to benefit the community of fishers and anglers living in Kilwinning and generally North Ayrshire (the "Community"), with the following purposes (the "Purposes"):

- 4.1 The advancement of the participation in the sport of fishing and angling in the Community
- 4.2 The advancement of environmental protection
- 4.3 To provide recreational facilities for those wishing to partake in fishing and angling
- 4.4 The advancement of animal welfare

How will these activities help achieve the organisation's charitable purposes?

Our aim is to become even more involved with the local community alongside the local council as well. As stated we maintain the riverbanks for everyone, we litter pick, tackle invasive species. We have volunteered to help in local activities with the Boy Scouts, helped our local community hall and joined in clearing footpaths after the recent storm around our town and county park.

Who will benefit from these activities?

All our anglers, from juniors to seniors will learn something new about our environment. Anyone who uses the local council footpaths close to the rivers and loch will benefit from our maintenance work will see how well kept the paths and verges are.

Is the organisation already up and running?

Yes

For how long?

1905

Does the organisation have accounts ?

Section 9: Restrictions on access to benefit

Does your organisation operate a membership scheme?

Yes

Who is eligible to become a member?

Anyone who wishes to become a member is free to do so, we have no restrictions

How do you become a member?

We have set dates in the year we sell permits in the local community centre hall, turn up on these dates, give your name and address and receive a permit after payment. After these dates we sell our permits from 3 local outlets who have agreed to do so, 2 outlets are tackle shops and the other is the local post office.

Is there a membership fee?

Yes

How much is the fee?

Adults -£40 Pensioners -£20 Under 16s are eligible for a free permit this year. Loch permit is £30. These prices are per year.

Please enter any concessionary rates

Pensioners -£20 Life members are free

Do you have any benefits restricted only to members?

No

Please tell us whether there are any physical or practical restrictions to accessing the benefit your organisation will provide. (For example will your organisation operate limited opening hours, or is there a lack of disabled access to the building where you will carry out your services?)

There are physical restrictions on where our members can fish along our riverbanks and loch ie steep bankings

Will the organisation charge people to access its services or facilities?

Yes

What services or facilities will the organisation charge for and how much will it charge?

As the above fee for permit prices, this gives you the right to fish the rivers and loch, the permit is your written permission to fish.

If you provide any concessionary rates for people unable to pay the charges, please outline these here

Pensioners are half price, under 16s are normally charged £10 per annum but this year they have been given free permits to encourage them into fishing.
